

Bezmialem Vakif University Undergraduate Additional Applications for International Students

Bezmialem Vakif University Undergraduate Additional Applications for International Students have already started

Deadline: 27th September 2013

Additional application period is for those who did not have a valid exam result during 6th June – 23rd August 2013 and, therefore, could not make an application. Those applicants will be able to make academic program selection according to the remaining quotas. Because of the fact that the remaining quotas will be limited, applying in the first application period is strongly recommended for those who have a valid exam result. The applicants who made an application during the first application period can not apply again in the additional application period.
