

Bezmialem Vakıf University Faculty of Health Sciences

Information on the Program in Audiology

General Information about Program

Bezmialem Vakıf University Faculty of Health Sciences Program in Audiology accepts students since 2012-2013 education year. Our mission as the program of audiology is to train competent and active audiologists who are respectful to human rights, ethical values; who are creative, innovative and have life-long learning and teaching ideals; to do studies on the acquisition and protection of professional autonomy and rights; conduct multidisciplinary studies; carry out undergraduate and postgraduate training and research in accordance with international standards; to offer audiology service and technology for the benefit of society only.

Qualification Awarded

Audiologist

Level of Qualification

Bachelor's Degree

Qualification Requirements and Regulations

In order to obtain an undergraduate degree in Audiology, the principles stated in the Associate Degree and Undergraduate Education and Training Regulations of the Bezmialem Vakıf University must be followed.

MATTER 38

(1) Students who successfully complete the education and training program are given a diploma. The matters to be included in diplomas are determined by the decision of the Senate.

(2) Diplomas given at the end of undergraduate degree education and training are signed by the dean or the director of the college and the Rector. Diplomas given at the end of associate degree education and training are signed by the vocational school of higher education director and the Rector.

(3) Students who receive a certificate of honor and high honor are given a diploma and a special certificate showing this status.

In order to obtain a Bachelor's degree, the student must complete at least 240 ECTS credits during his/her education.

Admission Requirements

To register to Program in Audiology, candidates should finish high school education or have similar degree to Turkish secondary educational system and get enough points in MF-3 scoring system in National University Exam.

Recognition of Prior Learning

The secondary education level must be completed.

Examination Regulations, Assessment and Grading

The principles set in the Bezmialem Vakıf University Associate Degree and Undergraduate Education and Training Regulations will apply.

Education Type

1.Full Time Education

Graduation Requirements

Students who fulfill the requirements set in the Associate Degree and Undergraduate Education and Training Regulations are considered to have completed their education and provided the necessary conditions for their graduation. The students who are eligible for graduation are granted diplomas of the relevant program according to the provisions of the regulations.

Occupational Profiles of Graduates

Audiologists have a wide range of workspaces including hospitals, private clinics and rehabilitation centers, universities, private education institutions and state institutions.

Access to Further Studies

Those who hold an undergraduate degree in audiology can apply thesis and non-thesis postgraduate programs or doctoral programs.